When asked by anyone where I went to school, I have answered with pride, "Lake Highlands." Four years ago many had never heard of it and wondered where it was.

But today that is no longer true because LH has become a growing part of metropolitan Dallas. Our students are members of the Dallas Teenage Council, the Texas Board of Film Review Council, the Theatre Center, Opera Debs, and other Dallas-centered civic activities.

To capture the life of our school effectively, you would almost certainly have to include some scenes around Dallas.

This year the annual staff and I have tried to get the pictorial history of Lake Highlands. We had fun getting the annual ready for you, and we hope you enjoy looking back on a year of Lake Highlands in Dallas.

Karen Firth, Editor

The honoree of the 1967 Wildcat has endeared himself to a generation of school children. From elementary through high school, his name is legend, and his deeds are innumerable. To list his accomplishments is to tell the story of the growth of the Richardson area, including Lake Highlands, from a tiny hamlet to a bustling metropolis, with the schools keeping pace.

Dallas citizens, public and private, sing his praises. His church finds him a faithful steward. His community and its many civic endeavors are proud of his efforts in their behalf. The news media have honored him, in editorial and in plaque.

Last Fall, more than 1000 educators, parents, students, and personal friends staged the "biggest surprise party" of his twenty years in Richardson, to applaud him publicly for what he has done.

Many of his peers have honored him with more elaborate gifts and awards than we can enumerate.

We, the Wildcat staff of 1967, have no such awards or gifts; but in deep appreciation of his guidance, love, and service to the schools, and particularly to Lake Highlands, it is our honor and privilege to dedicate the 1967 Wildcat to

"That will be $200 for the broken microscope, $45 for the snake that got loose . . ." replies Mr. Whitman.

History

It is necessary for us to have a full understanding of the world around us. This can be achieved through a well-rounded knowledge of the past. History, government, and social problems studies are important in helping students to appreciate the world in which they live.

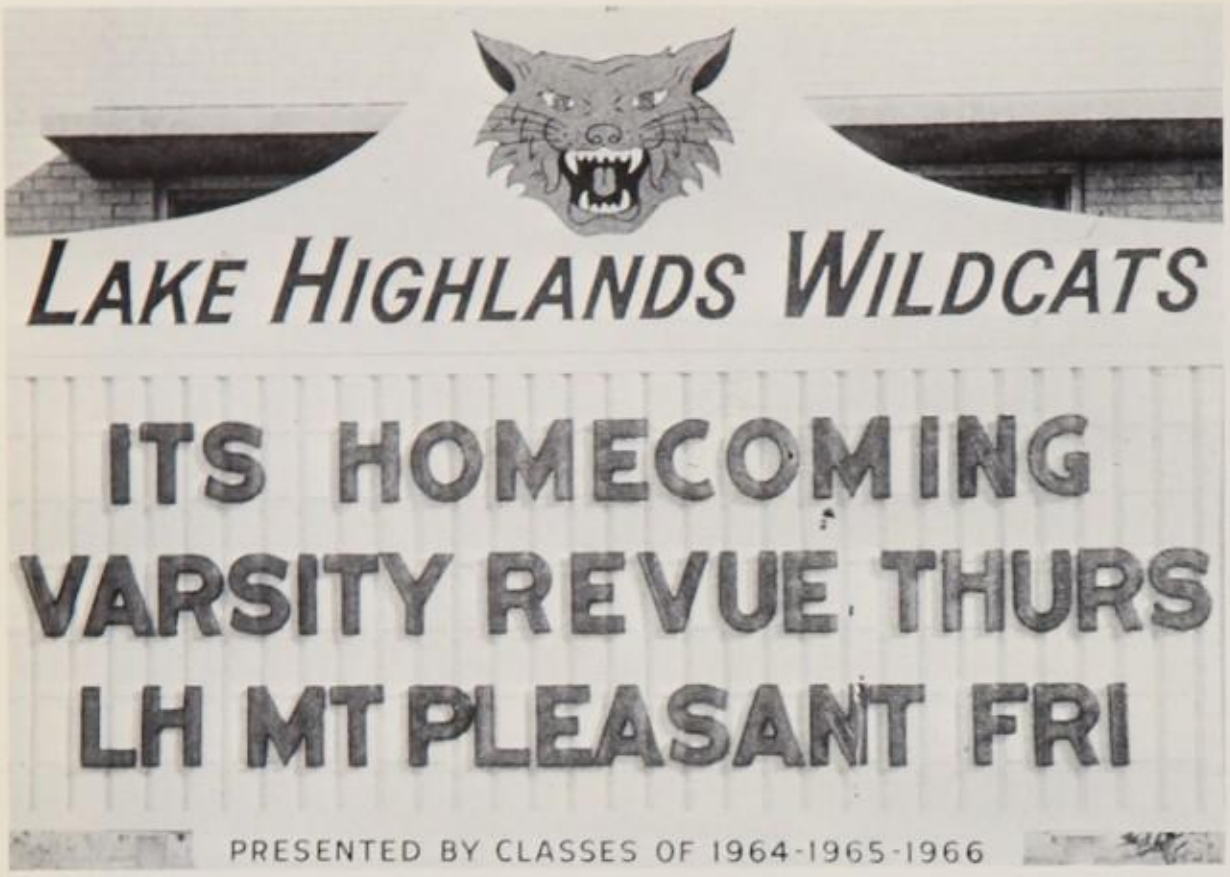
Homecoming, 1966



The exes had a hand in Homecoming plans, for their gift, the sign on the front lawn, told one and all it was that time at Lake Highlands.

And the plans were coming true. Decorations of crepe paper streamed from overhead, draped the pillars, and waved in every wisp of wind. The musicians and drill team practiced for their shows; the traditional Varsity Revue was becoming a coordinated-but-chaotic classic; and the football team was awaiting the kickoff. And through it all ran the thread of Homecoming Queen nominees, the Friday pep rally, pre-game pomp, and the Homecoming dance after the victory.

"Vic, control yourself. It's just crepe paper."

Paul Kaplan introduces the Varsity Revue

"If you can't sing MY song, we'll leave."

Traditional beginning of Homecoming activities, the 1966 Revue was also the end result of many hours of anticipation and preparation. Seven lucky girls were changed into Cinderellas, and many LH students were changed into eveyrthing from Chickenman to Loretta Young.

But for everyone, it was a time for fun and laughs, always to be remembered as a part of Homecoming, 1966.

Friday's Pep Rally

Banners, yells, songs, greetings to exes, and a lump in the throat when the Alma Mater's thrilling notes rang out. The exciting Highlandettes, the Bell Boys, the cheerleaders, and the prayer of a football player. These were the ingredients of a thrilling afternoon.

Highlandette routine puts spark in spirit.

. . . and before the game

They looked so lovely, and their escorts were so tautly conscious of the onlookers. Each girl was chosen by those who knew her best as being a likely Homecoming Queen. Only one could win, but they were proud of the honor: each was a Homecoming Nominee.

Edson Marlar and Jane Emmert

Pre-Game Ceremonies

"Let's make the hoop square next year; this one's too hard to handle."

Just before the Homecoming game, a Lake Highlands tradition is the presentation of the nominees and the crowning of the Queen. Football Sweetheart Jo Tuley was another in the tradition of beautiful girls who have worn the crown at Homecoming.

Tim Mashburn escorts Jo Tuley to midfield.

And the victory hoop was waiting for the Wildcats.

"The Shadow of her Smile makes lifetime bright" . . . for the Homecoming crowd, 1966, Lake Highlands.

HERE COME THE WILDCATS! And the game gets under way.

and the final touches

. . . and with it, the spirit of pep rallies, the anticipation of nominations, the suspense of voting, the thrill of crowning a Queen, the excitement of the game, and of course, a perfect ending, the dance. Call the mood nostalgic, for the re-singing of the Alma Mater and the renewal of treasured friendships made happy memories again reality.

. . . and there will be more Homecomings, each being bigger and better than the preceding one, but all exemplifying the undying WILDCAT SPIRIT.

Relaxing, with or without shoes . . .

The dance was the fitting finale to Homecoming, 1966.

Teachers' Talents?

'Plaisir d'Amour'' never sounded better than when done by Miss Edgar and Cheryl Gaston.

"ID? Wouldn't my library card do?"

"I'll have some more . . . that Brand X isn't so bad after all."

"My dawg has fleas! Hit it, Jo Ann," giggles Miss Rodgers to Miss Landers.

"Come here, big boy, I need to talk to you."

No talent scouts beat down the doors of Lake Highlands to sign them to contracts. No dramatic awards were presented to any of the performers. But the teachers who participated in the Y-Teens Teachers' Talent Show do have a legion of student fans. All those who witnessed the "Frankie and Johnny" skit gained a new image of the faculty. Frankie was superbly portrayed by Mrs. Jerry McVay and Coach Bob Stamps starred as Johnny. Mr. Ron Brock doubled as director and bartender while Miss Jo Ann Landers portrayed Nelly Bly as no one else could.

Coach Jerry Miller's life was reviewed much to his embarrassment and much to the delight of students in a "This is Your Life" presentation. Teachers took the roles of everyone from Coach Miller's childhood sweetheart to his college coach. All in all the Y-Teens Teachers' Talent Show was a great success.

"Hm ... I always thought there was something strange about that boy."

Mr. Miller's sandbox sweetheart skips out of his past.

"Actually, teaching is only my hobby."

Cotton Bowl Classic

Banner bearers Barbara Ruth and Connie Smith start the Band off on the right foot.

"How can I tell Mr. Dunn that I forgot my clarinet?"

The annual Cotton Bowl classic held special significance for the Wildcat Band and the Highlandettes on New Year's Eve. Invited to participate in the Cotton Bowl Parade and football game activities which were seen on national television, the band and drillteam members were true to form, performing superbly, despite a foggy, cold morning.

By game time, the sun was shining, and the Band was outstanding in color and sound, the Highlandettes were precision and beauty, and the football game was one for the record books.

Directors Frances Davenport and Howard Dunn, as well as all of Lake Highlands, could be proud.

White-gloved Highlandettes feel their way through the fog while marching in the Cotton Bow Parade.

The Wildcat Bandsmen form a cowboy hat on the field, as they provide lively entertainment during half-time activities at the Cotton Bowl on December 31.

Coy Highlandettes wave to the judges as they pass the stands.

Carrying all their props, and pretending they're warm, Bandsmen and Highlandettes stand ready and waiting as Captain Suzie Cozart eyes the field.

Twirp Dance

"Us Four" provided the music . . .

The tables turned . . . and for one night, girls held chairs, opened doors, and paid the bills. It was the annual Twirp Dance, a fund-raising project of the Junior Class, and as always, a success. Dress was most informal, the music of "Us Four" set a happy mood, and even exes cames back for the fun.

It wasn't quite "Sadie Hawkins Day", but many a girl gladly took care of the tab, just to be with the boy of HER choice.

Students rocked to the rhythm, and the gym floor took a beating . . .

Twirps played "spin the bottle" . . . and

An "EX" played "put your little foot."

Odd Moments Around L H . . . Remember ??

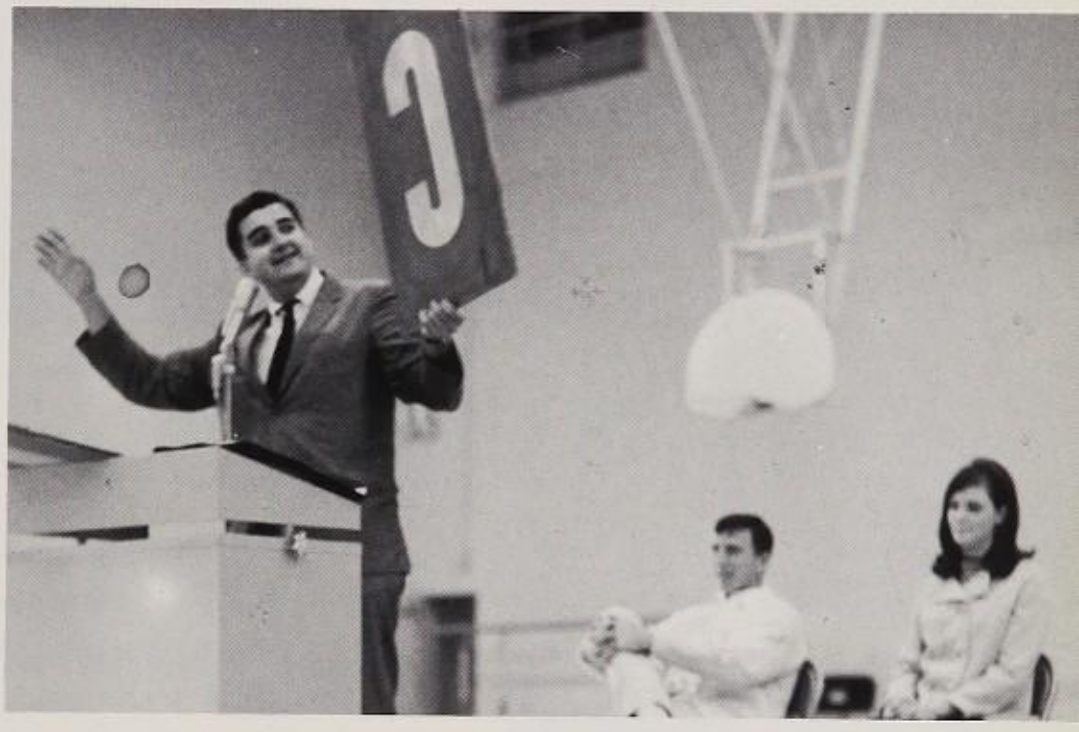
. . . when Charlie's car caught on fire in the school's parking lot.



. . . when Mr. Sam Kovak tried to teach the student body to read . . . Backwards!

These odd moments in the life of Lake Highlands will live in the memories of her students, alongside the prom, senior play, and the lingering taste of the lunchroom food.

. . . when the airplane ran out of fuel and had to make an emergency landing in the field behind the school.

Y-Teens Presentation

Mrs. Mary Marlar graciously accepts a tribute for her leadership this year.

Many of the Y-Teens' fathers learned a new step or two at the Presentation Ball in December.

This, the first year for a Y-Teens Presentation Ball, is sure to become a Lake Highlands tradition. Held in the Fleur de Lis Room of the Cabana, the pre-Christmas holiday dance was most impressive, as proud parents and friends watched 77 excited Y-Teens as they were presented, with their escorts, by club sponsor Mrs. Mary Marlar.

The honor of being chosen Most Typical Y-Teen was accorded to senior Julie Janes, while Edson Marlar, also a senior, was named Y-Teen Beau, by Miss Jo Ann Landers, co-sponsor.

Mrs. Marlar and Miss Landers were honored by the Y-Teens, with gifts of roses, as thanks for their sponsorship of the largest organization at Lake Highlands.

Randy Mustard proudly escorts Dorcas Sanford.

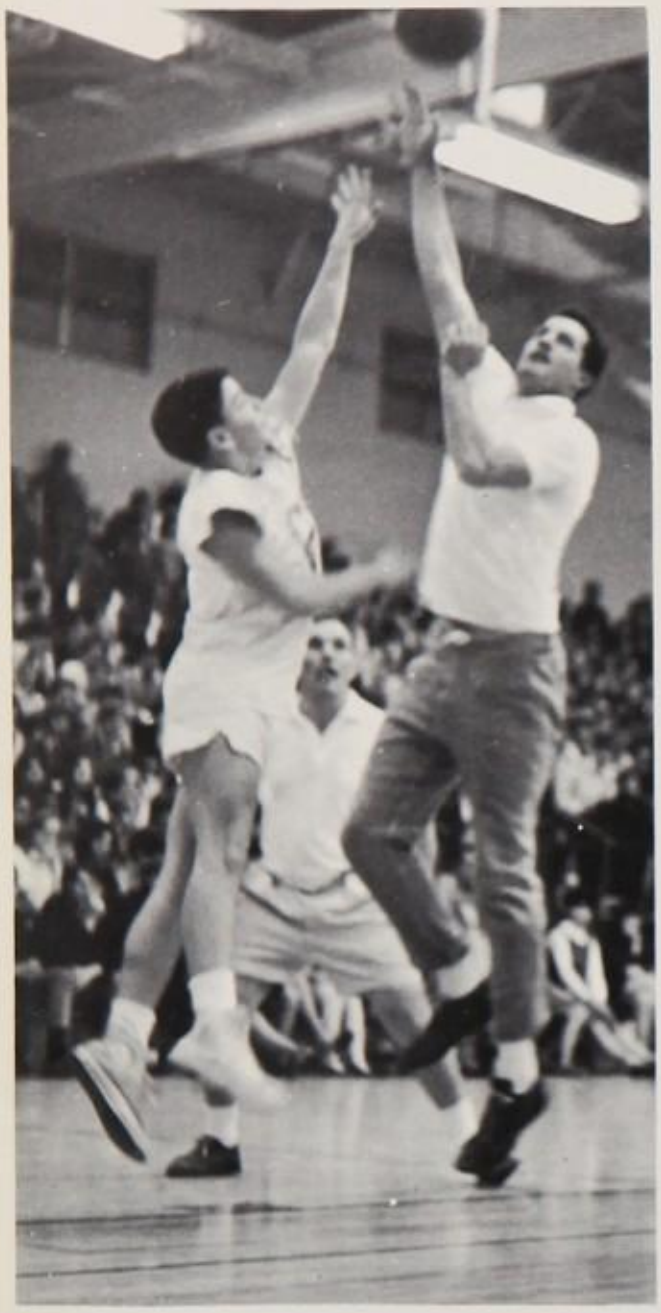
"Are you sure it was your dad that whistled?"

Miss Jo Ann Landers smilingly receives a bouquet from Y-Teens president, Nan Mulvaney.

Edson Marlar is taken by surprise as he learns he has been chosen Y-Teen Beau.

Julie Janes radiantly accepts the title of Most Typical Y-Teen.

A Y-Teen takes a turn with her father.



Bill Jones seems to be at a disadvantage in this play.

The fast-moving game entertained the student body.

Key Club — Faculty Basketball Game

"Hey guys, let me play," pleads Coach Sam Austin

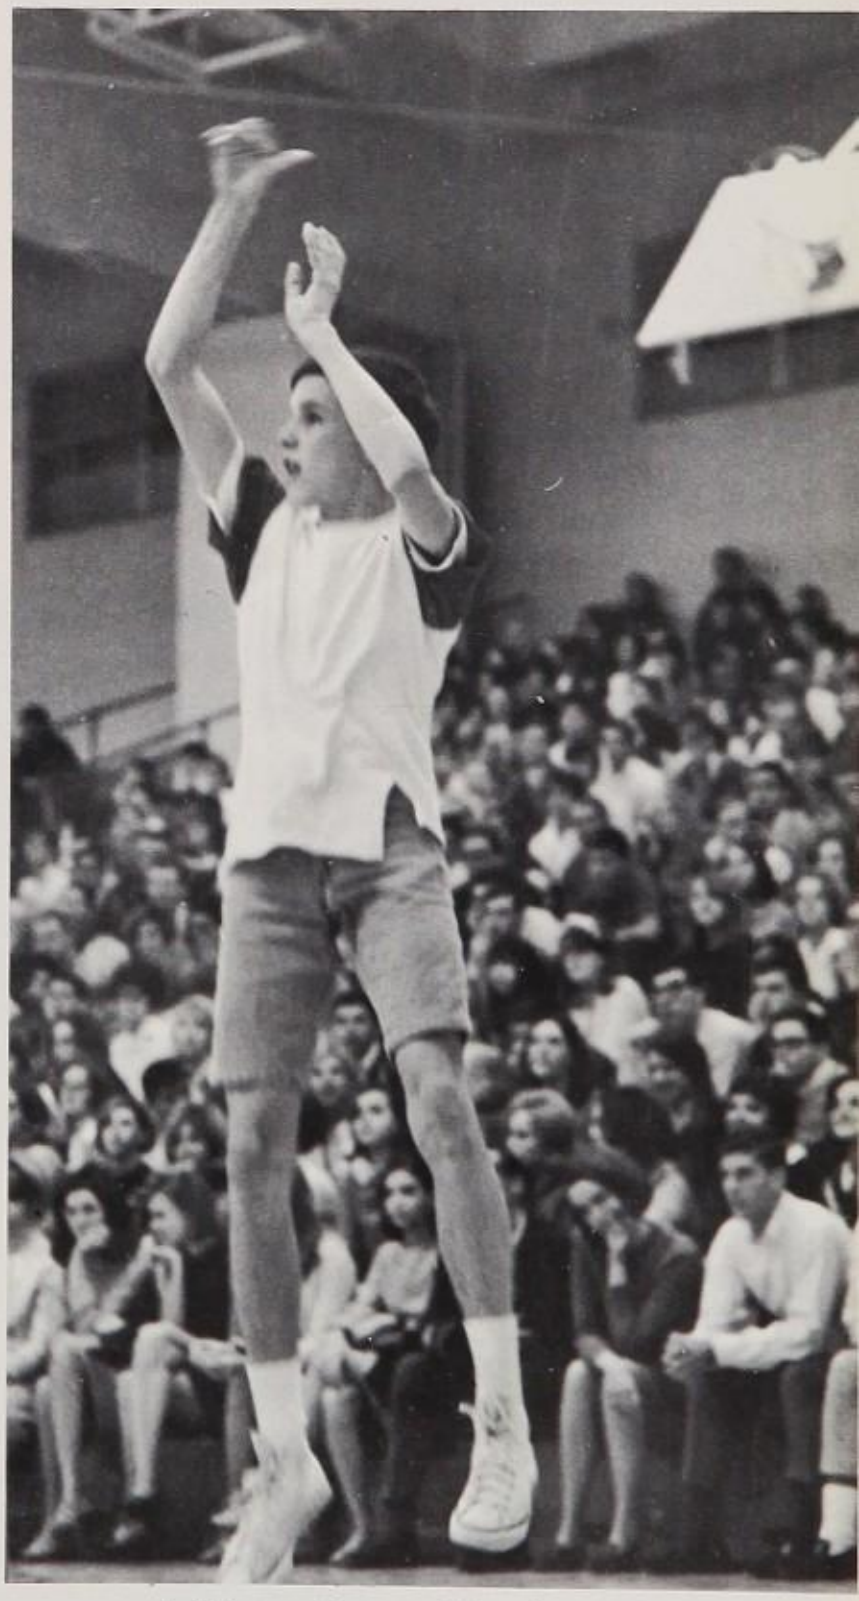
Don Mullman's suave charm and endearing personality rate him two of LH's best.

Even Rick Bibby's "cute" smile couldn't distract Edson Marlar from the big game.

Coach Jerry Miller exhibits usual form and finesse.

The Key Club-Faculty Basketball game was a highpoint in the assemblies occurring throughout the year. The faculty scored an overwhelming victory (faculty members also refereed the game!) However, the Key Club came out ahead . . . money wise, that is!

Key Clubbers look on as the faculty soars ahead.



Jeff Swope "gets two" for the Key Club.

Sophomore nominee Becky Truitt watched her step as George Parker, also a nominee, led her down the aisle.

LH'ers "jive" to the music of "The Bitter End."

Favorites

Sophomore class nominees Nancy Hastings and Kenny Sharber seemed a bit uneasy as they were presented to the students.

Scholastic leaders Vicki Lewis and Ricky Coke were selected by their class as "Most Likely to Succeed."

"The Bitter End" provided the music for the 1967 Favorite's Ball.

Ball

Nancy Scott, a nominee from the Sophomore class, was proudly escorted by Jimmy Littlejohn, also a nominee.

Senior class favorites, Jane Emmert and George Latsko, exchange a look of genuine surprise.

The evening was enjoyable for the winners as well as the spectators, as the students lost themselves to the music of "The Bitter End."

Annually the students of Lake Highlands elect those students who represent best their ideal of a "favorite". The Favorite's Ball, jointly sponsored by the Student Council and the Wildcat staff, has become a tradition. Suspense grew throughout the evening as everyone wondered who had been chosen. The climax of the evening came as the 1967 Favorites were announced.

To these ten winners, the 1967 Favorites' Ball had a very special meaning.

"You Can't Take It With You"

Sandy Mauro as Mrs. DePinna charmed the hearts of the delighted audience as Cupid.

"Grandfather" Greg Bostwick gave a superb performance as an escapee from bureaucracy.

One of the entertainment highlights of the year was the Senior Play presented on February 17 and 18. "You Can't Take It With You", a comedy by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, was produced through the combined efforts of the Senior Class and the Red Masque Society. The play, directed by Ron Brock, introduced a family of real individualists to LH audiences. The Sycamores, aptly portrayed by such stars as Greg Bostwick, Nita Jo LeGrand, and Barry Owens, provided an evening of superb entertainment.

Railley Fallis as Rheba's beau, Donald, stole the show with his on-stage antics.

A customary happy ending found "true love" triumphant.

Service Club's Dance

"Things go better with Coke."

One of the finest dances LH'ers have ever attended was held on March 3, 1967, as the Key Club and Interact Club jointly sponsored a real "bash." The Novas provided the music as the students filled the dance floor of the Theater Lounge at the Apparel Mart.

Key and Interact Club members and their dates rocked . . . and rocked . . .

. . . and rocked all night.

"Rockin' at the Hop"? I don't believe we know that one.

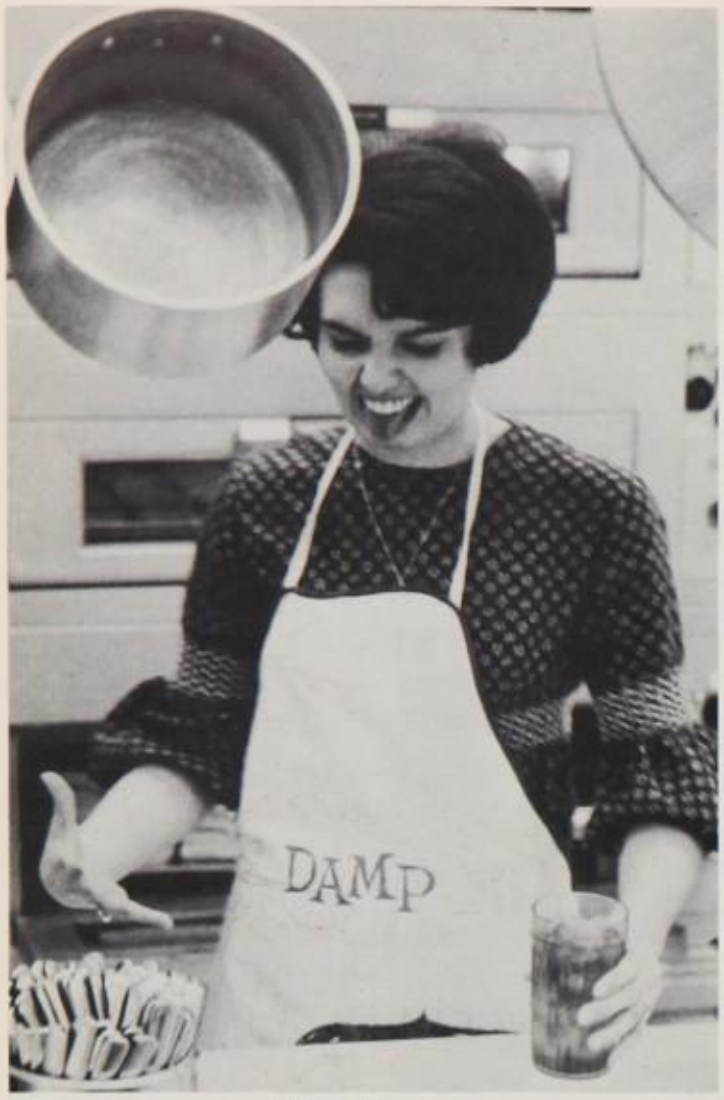
After being crowded off of the dance floor, many took refuge on the balcony.

The great music of the Novas made dressing up worthwhile.

Sophomores peer from the balcony during an intermission.

The good music and the beautiful atmosphere kept the dance floor packed all the time.

Open House



"Yu-k-k"

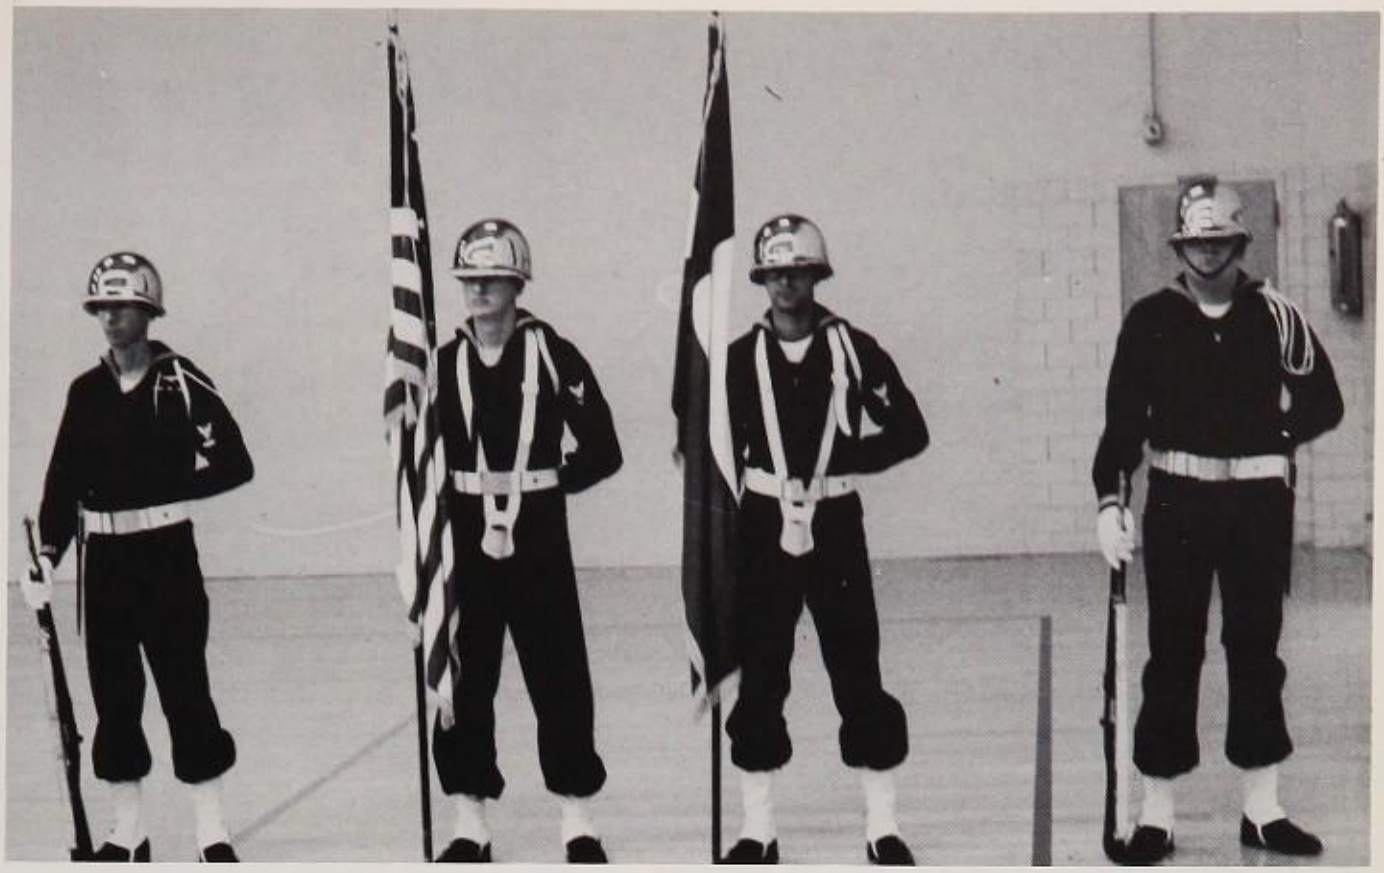
Even chiefcook and bottlewasher, Terry Pope, had to stoop to the menial task of cleaning tables.

The spaghetti dinner, sponsored by the Wildcat Band and Choir, proved to be a real success.

Master of Ceremonies, Mark Coppedge, got the program off to a good start.

The singing of the choir plus speeches from outstanding Lake Highlands students provided an inspiring program.

Greg Bostwick superbly presented Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address."



The U. S. Navy color guard awed all present with their exact precision.

The Spring Open House began with a spaghetti dinner, the joint effort of the choir and band. The patriotism program featured Mr. Joe Dealey, president of the Dallas Morning News. The choir sang, the band played, and stirring speeches were given by LH students. The evening was concluded as parents made the rounds of the classrooms and met the teachers.

Miss Marjean Edgar presented an arrangement written by Mr. Howard Dunn of Walt Whitman's "O Captain, My Captain."

Civic leaders listen attentively to the patriotic speeches of LH students.

Mr. Joe Dealey voiced the sentiments of all present as he praised patriotism.

Debbie Pennington, newly elected 2nd Lieutenant, winds up her tryout routine all smiles.

Spring Tryouts

Suzie Cozart is overjoyed at being chosen again as captain of the Highlandettes.

Cheerleader hopeful Kathy Hoierman demonstrates her cartwheels for the audience.

"Just as long as you remember who's boss . . . everything will be fine."

Exchange Student	Harald Mulack

The American Field Service is a national organization that began as an ambulance service in the First World War. The purpose of the club is to sponsor a foreign exchange student for the school each year. This year's student was Harold Mulack from Germany. In order to have an exchange student, $750 must be raised by the A.F.S. each year. Last year they sold student directories, had a bake sale on Valentine Day, and presented an assembly for the student body after Spring vacation to help earn the money.

Mr. Anderson presents Harald with his senior ring.

Harald arrived on August 21 to spend the year with Lake Highlands. He is the fourth exchange student for L.H. and is the first to take part in the Wildcat Band where he played the Clarinet. He enjoys chess and photography. When he returns to Germany he will have one year of high school to complete and then he plans to attend the University of Munich.

Y-Teens

In association with the Y.W.C.A., Y-Teens is a service club that has contributed much to our community and school. Members participated in the March of Dimes. They gave a Halloween party for some children in Baylor Hospital. At Thanksgiving they sponsored a canned food drive, and at Christmas and on Valentine Day they gave parties for orphans. Some of the projects they have undertaken included a welcome breakfast for new students in September, a Presentation Ball in December, several bake sales, and Christmas caroling.

One hundred and forty-four girls were members of the Lake Highlands High School chapter of Y-Teens in 1966-67.

Seventy-seven of the girls, their escorts, sponsors, and many of their parents took part in the Presentation Ball, a memorable evening during the Christmas holidays.

What better way to make money than a bake sale?

A well-known service organization at Lake Highlands is the Future Teachers of America which prepares its members for a life of teaching. They attend various programs concerning different types of education, serve as student assistants and as tutors to their fellow students.

Future Homemakers Of America

The Future Homemakers of America are striving toward new horizons. Selling cook books and Christmas candles were their big money-making projects for this year. They have also given fashion shows, attended the area meeting at North Texas, and the state meeting in Dallas.

"Hello out there . . ."

The Red Masque Society made these presentations during the year: Antic Spring, directed by Mr. Ron Brock; Hello Out There, directed by Nita Jo LeGrand; The Maker of Dreams, directed by Harryette Warren; and You Can't Take It With You, a Senior Class-Red Masque Production. They attended three major contesfs, one of them being UIL. Some of the members participated in several city-wide professional productions. They included Mr. Ron Brock, Cathy McClenny, Patsy McClenny, and Wendy Lamoreaux.

Antic Spring, this was the first of many.

Harryette and Wendy ponder the question, "Is this how Patsy began?"

Do you doubt that this house lacks the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval?

Los Gatos Monteses, the Lake Highlands chapter of the Pan American Student Forum, has had a busy year. Last year the club attended the state convention, and Susan Kunnemann was elected to the Board of Directors for this year. Some of the activities of the club included a Christmas party for Latin-American children, an annual banquet, and a Spanish play. The highlights of the year was attending the state convention in Austin in April.

Como afait ihr dixit?

Who sang "yeah, yeah, yeah," at the end of "Away in a Manger"?

One of the Spanish Club's plays was a comedy on how a person can get "Tongue-Tied in Mexico."

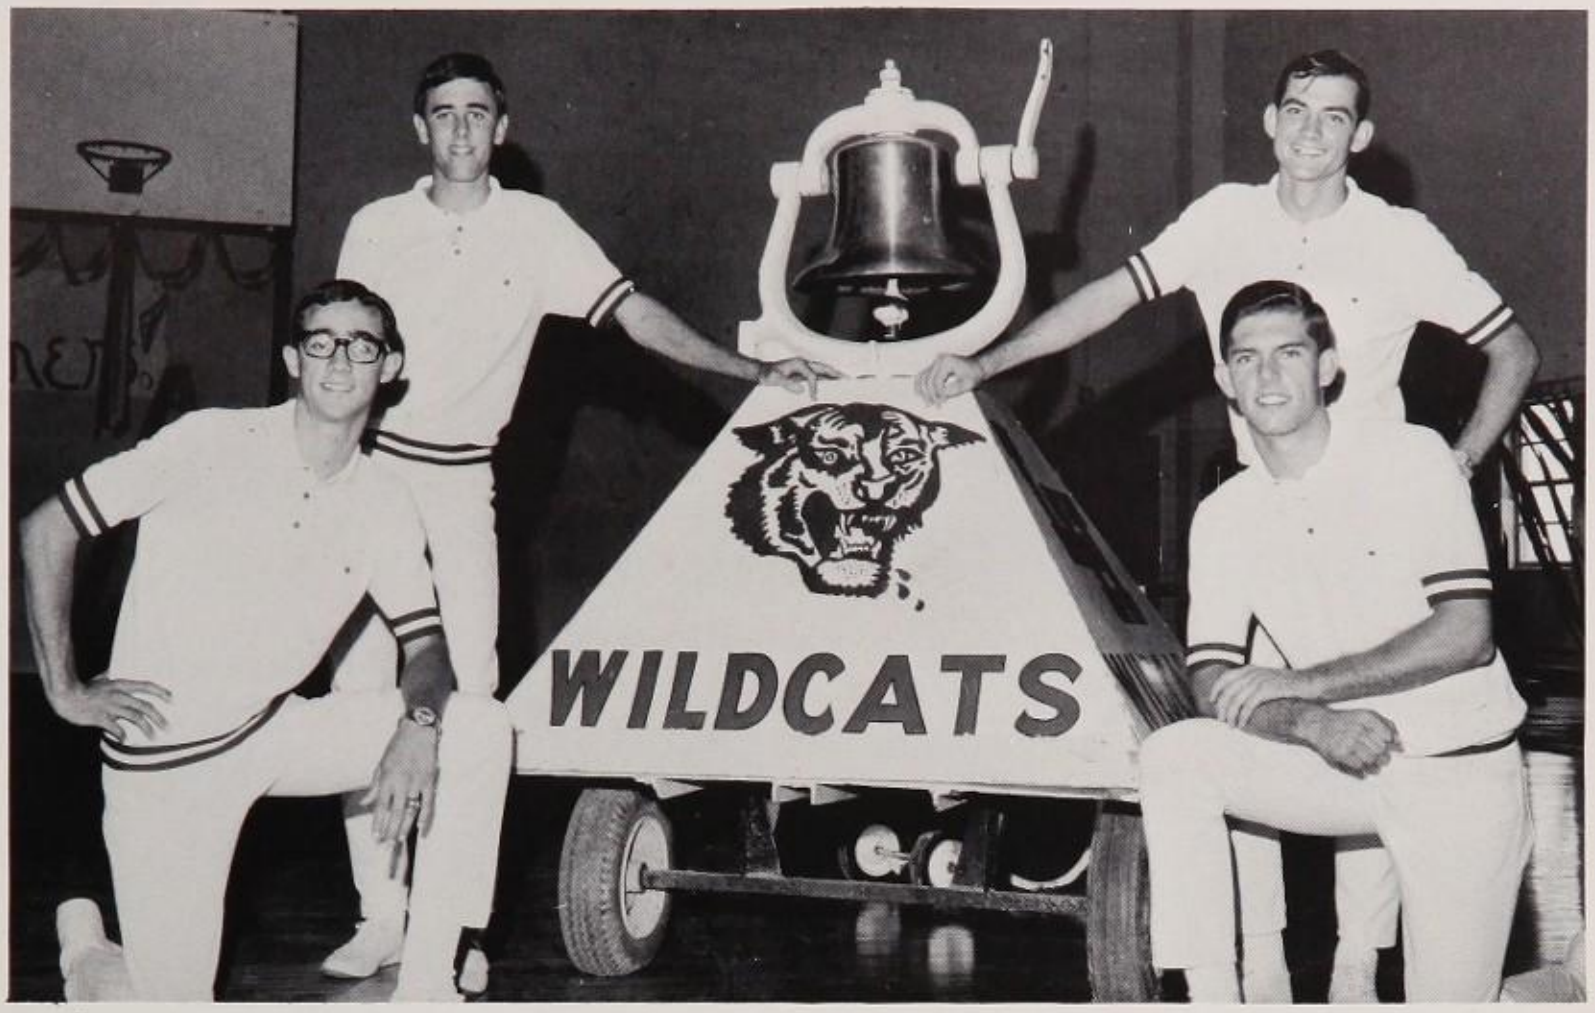
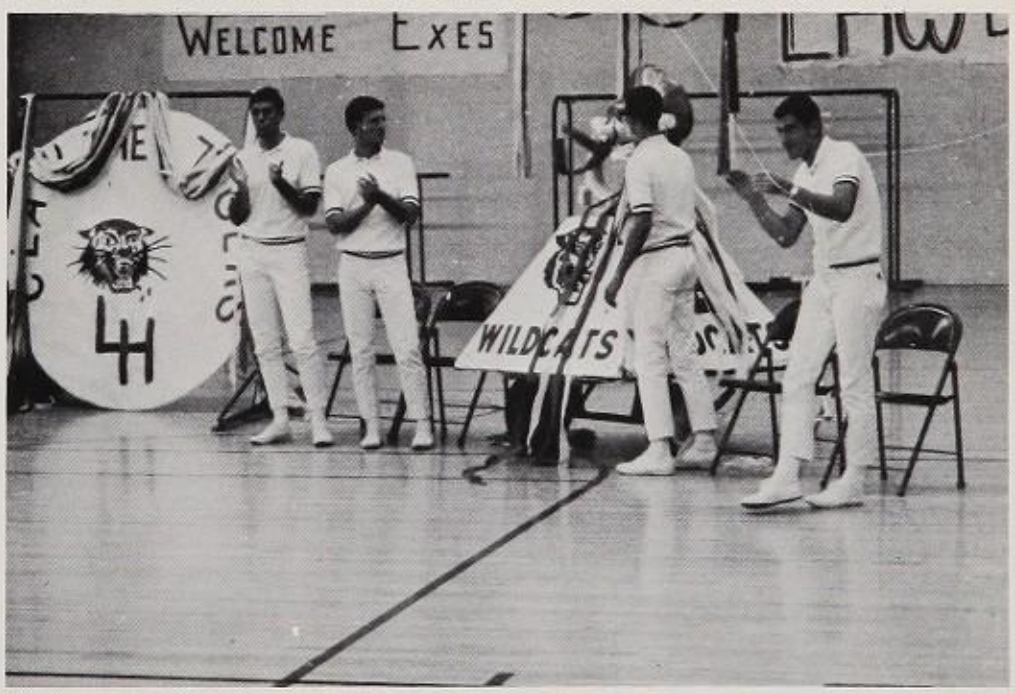
"But Miss Joclyn, these words weren't on our vocabulary list!"

Bell Boys

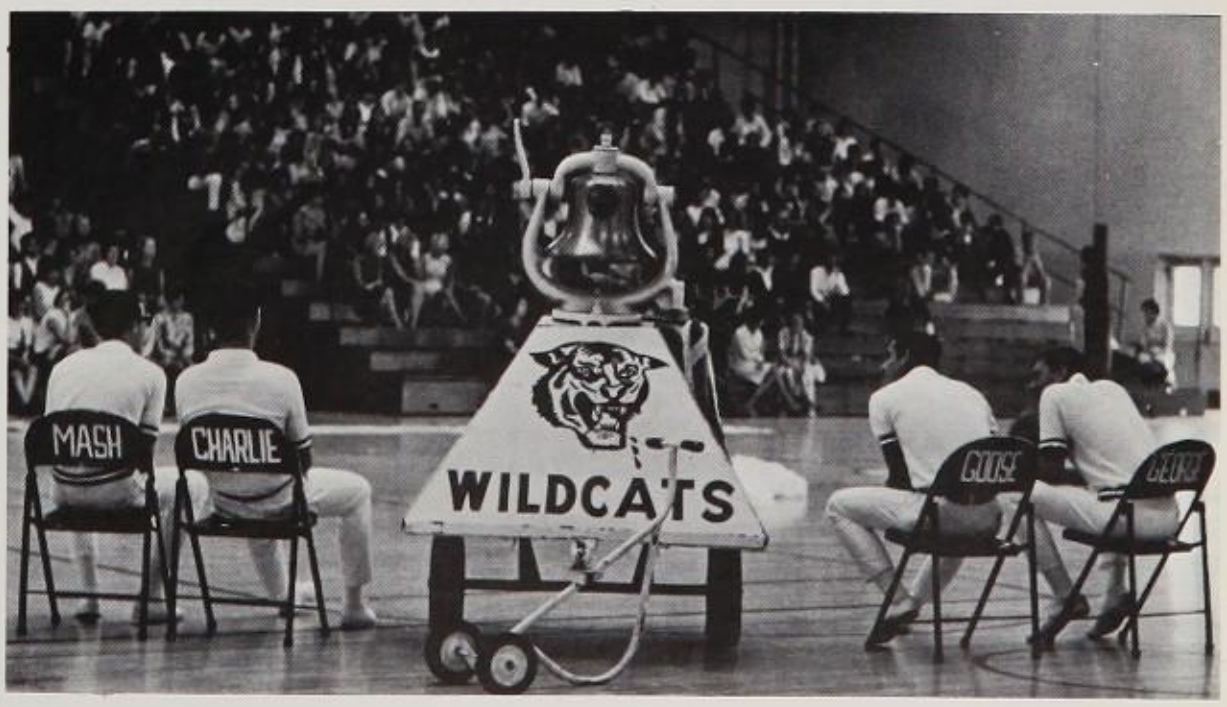


Four boys who have done a great job of promoting school spirit and enthusiasm are Mark Callaway, George Latsko, Edson Marlar, and Tim Mashburn. They were in charge of transporting the victory bell to and from the football games and ringing it each time the Wildcats scored. The Bell boys are sponsored by the Key Club.



Tim rings the victory bell as spirit rises.

With the arrival of the Victory bell, the game can begin.



LH spirit boosters, the Bell Boys, take a momentary rest during a pep rally.

Cheer

With arms in the air, Cheryl Rowe shouts, "Fight!"

"White!" yells head cheerleader Jo Tuley.

Leaders

Because of a serious injury, Julie Janes was unable to participate in all the vigorous activities of the Cheerleaders, but she was there to add spirit, every time.

Six girls who were always promoting school spirit and a desire to win among the student body were the cheerleaders consisting of seniors Jo Tuley and Julie Janes; juniors Kathy Hoierman, Linda Rook, Cheryl Rowe, and Bevan Wymond. They sold spirit ribbons, decorated the school, and led cheers at pep rallies and at games. They also marched in the Fair Day Parade.

Junior Kathy Hoierman, begins "Whisper".

Linda Rook asks for "One Big Fight".

Bevan Wymond says the Pledge before a pep rally.

The Wildcat Band began the year by participating in all ten football games. At Christmas they presented a concert wth the choir; they also performed in the New Year's Eve Day Parade and Cotton Bowl pregame ceremonies. In the spring they played at a Patriotic Assembly and later at a teacher's convention. Their busy year included participating in three divisions of the UIL Contests: marching, playing, and solo and ensemble.

Band Personalities

Drum majors, Melinda Schluneger and Mike Watts, stand at attention for the last time as leaders of the band.

The majorettes end a successful year with a smile. This year's majorettes were Glenda Gunter, Marsha Fuller, Wendy Favors, Lynda Jo Hopkins, and Jonnie Tyler.

The all-male members of the Stage Band have performed at all the home basketball games and provided the music for the Varsity Review. Student Director for the band was Terry Pope.

"Oh, what I would do for Wanda the Witch . . . or Lynda Jo's lacquer," exclaimed Glenda Gunter.

"With these hats on, who knows where the band is," murmur the drum majors.

And The Beat Goes On . . .

"Hey, Jimmy, how about marching with the rest of us?"

"Wait, wait! Our tongues are stuck," exclaim members of the bass clarinet section.

The choir performed in activities such as The Varsity Revue, a Patriotic program, and the Spring Concert. At the Spring Open House, they co-sponsored a spaghetti dinner with the Wildcat Band. They also attended the Buccaneer Festival with the band in Corpus Christi.

Distributive Education

Students of Lake Highlands that are gaining early experience in the career world are the members of Distributive Education. Their many projects this year have included selling umbrellas, pocket calendars and raincoats. This experience will help them become better acquainted with the business world.

1966

The opposition quarterback surveyed the Lake Highlands' defensive squad poised across the line of scrimmage, then squinted past his face guard to the goal line so far away. With a quick glance, he set for the snap. The lines clashed. As the ball left the quarterback's hands, the figure of Wildcat Bennett surged forward to bat down the ball.

The quarterback dusted the seat of his pants. Set again. Wildcats Dixon and Riley crash through, and the ball-carrier flees, only to be clawed down from behind.

The Wildcats' ball. Adelstein is set. Moore centered. Bennett pulled from his left guard spot and led Chandler around end. Down field blocks were set by Coppedge, Lyle, and Shaw.

First down. Adams handed off to Chandler. Chandler handed to Lyle. The opposition defense moved in. Lyle pitched back to Adams. The quarterback hit Coppedge for the TD. This was the way of a winning season.

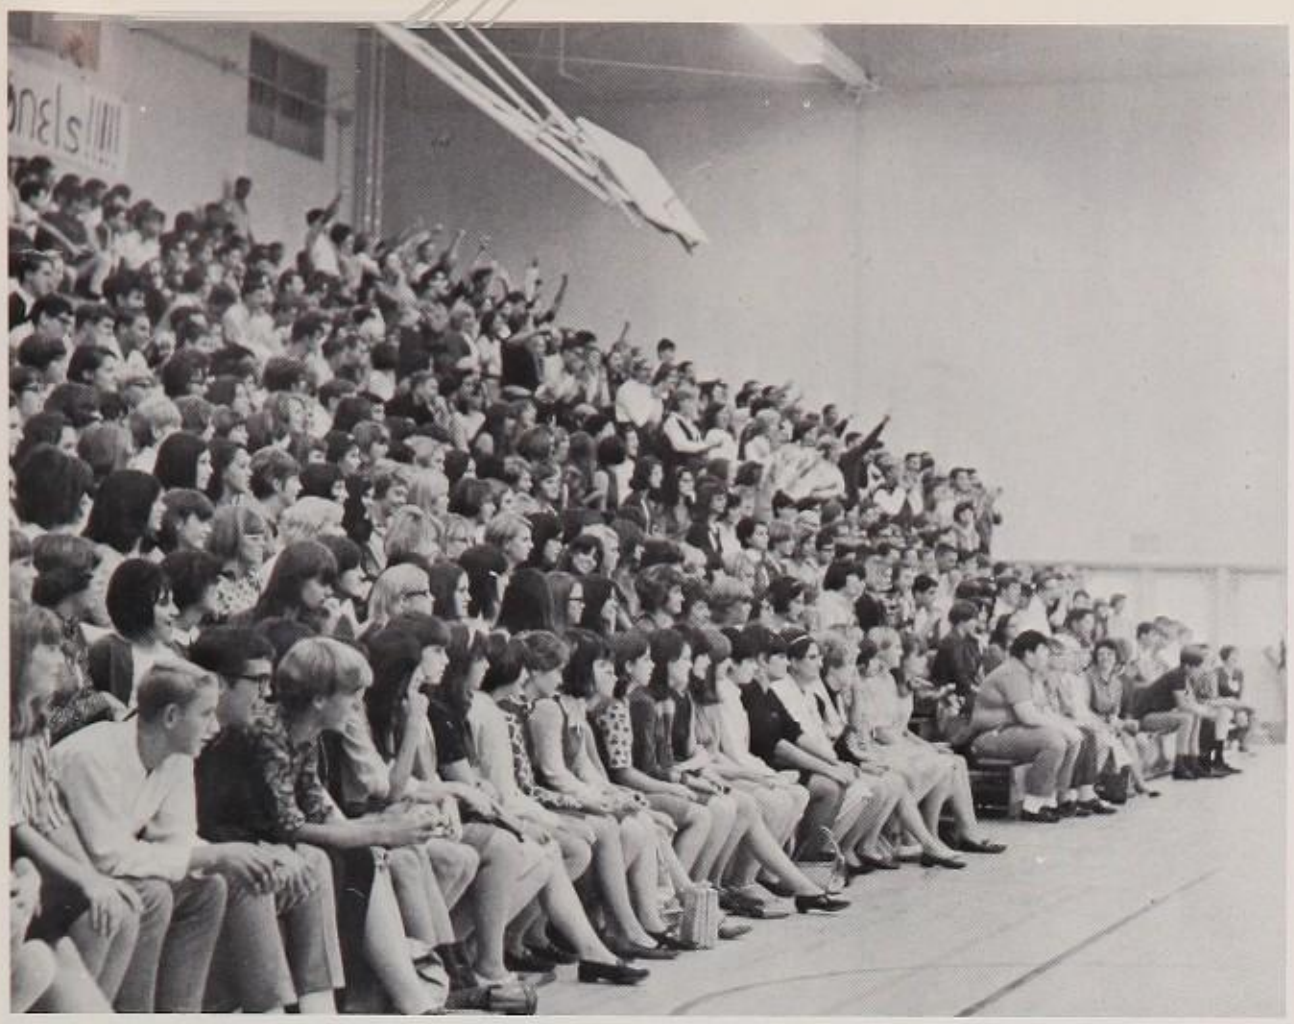
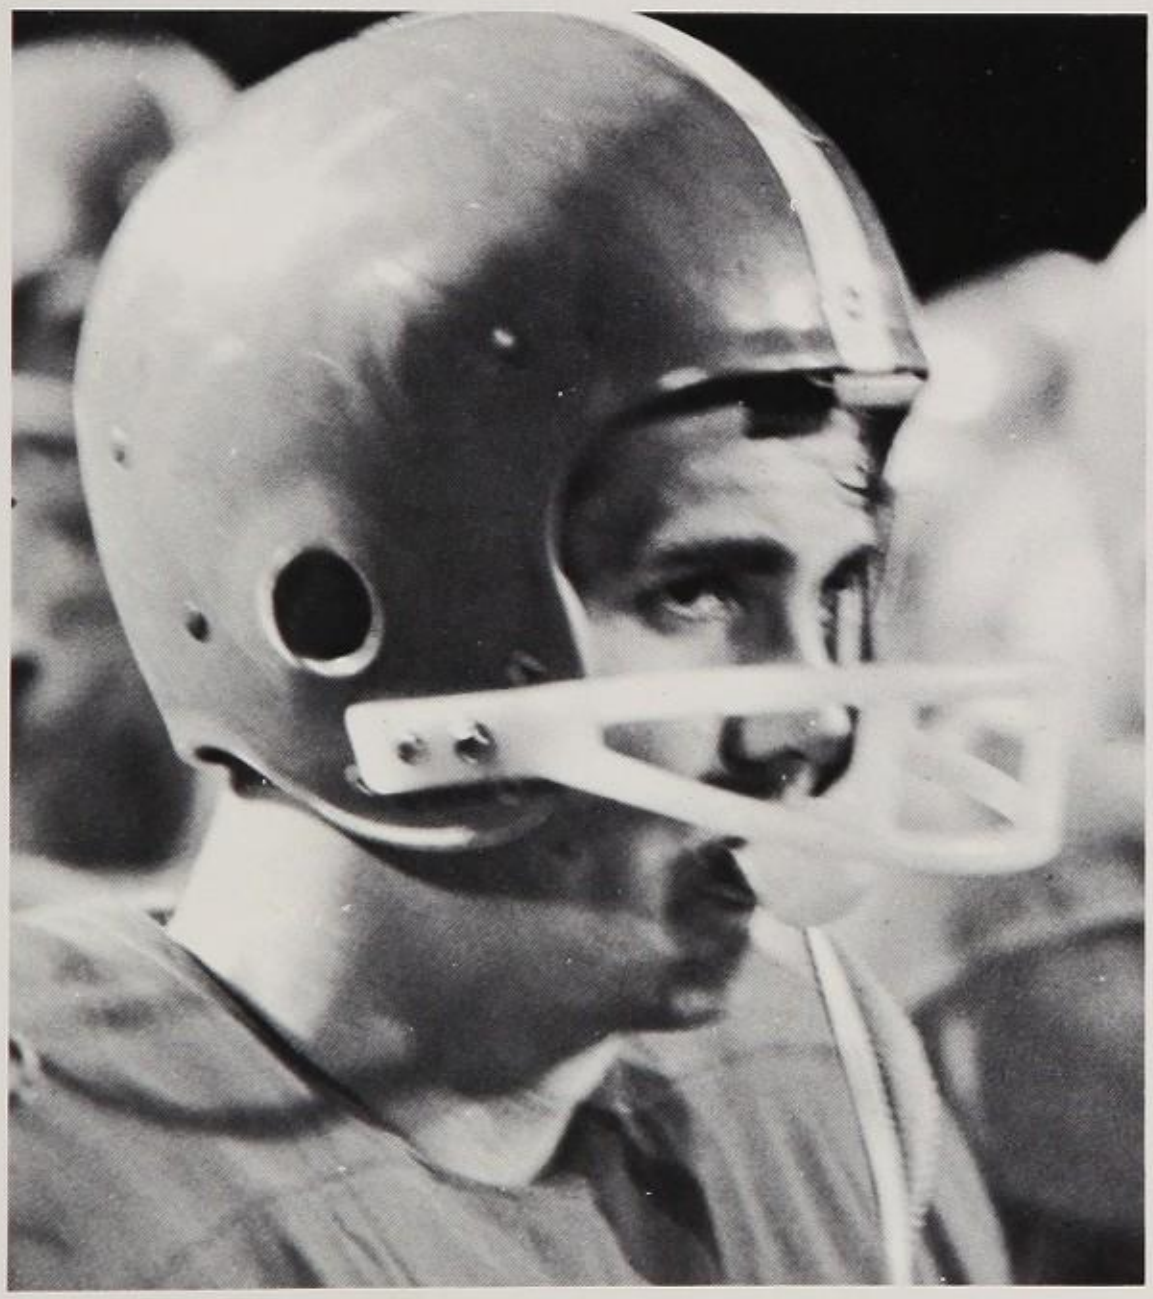
Six Share Honors

In Post — Season Polls

Pre-game strategy continues into the classroom.



Pep rallies helped build spirit and pride in the team.



And a little bubble gum kept them relaxed.

It was a year of juniors and seniors working together to put the Wildcats next to the top in district play. And likewise, it was a year of shared honors from the post-season polls.

Three seniors and three juniors divided the awards and a total of nine places on the mythical teams.

Five LH footballers were honored on the Dallas Morning News' 6AAA All-District team.

The district coaches chose two Wildcats for their All-District list.

And two 'Cats received honorable mention on the All-Greater-Dallas squad, from more than 50 area schools, by the Dallas Times Herald.

Junior Tommy Chandler, back, was the only Wildcat elected in all three polls. Tommy shattered three school records, rolling up 1001 yards in 215 carries, and a one-game record of 193 yards.

Winning two spots was senior Jeff Bennett, offensive guard. Both Dallas newspapers picked Jeff for the position, based on 93 assisted tackles in 10 games.

Mark Coppedge, playing his senior year at guard on offense and defense, was selected by the News for their defensive team.

Another junior, Denver Crawley won the admiration of the district coaches who selected him, by a unanimous vote, for the post of offensive tackle.

Junior Cleve Whitener won the halfback slot on the News' defensive squad, selected for tieing a school record of 15 unassisted tackles in a season.

And rounding out the polls was Jim Walls, powerful back who was the workhorse of the Wildcat team. Jim won an honorable mention on the News' offensive team, and together he and Tommy scored 80 of the Wildcat points during the 1966 season.

The Unsung Heroes

Mike Tucker and company bag a Greenville lion under the lights.

Varsity players have to come from somewhere, and minus a few who have been walking into top positions since elementary school, the bulk of the Varsity comes from the ranks of B-team and Junior Varsity. Every player has his beginning, and many pros and All-Americans remember quite clearly the struggles and disappointments of their B-team days in high school. Regardless of popular opinion, the action in a B-team game can be every bit as exciting as a Varsity extravaganza, and as the few loyal spectators of the past season can testify, our B-team and Junior Varsity were worth watching.

Second in District

Basketball coach Lou Zastoupil sat at his desk in the back corner of the basketball locker room. The coach was talking about desire. "The boys came up here and fixed up the locker room on their own time last summer." The cabinets were Wildcat red with each boy's name stenciled above. Over the door is a sign: If you're not tall enough to duck when you pass through this door—Forget it!

The guys were dedicated. They had to be, to stick with basketball four hours a day on weekdays, plus Saturday workouts.

From October 15 when workouts began, until the middle of February when season ended, the routine was the same: Warm up, then station and shooting, two on two, defense drills, presses, free throws, stall or press offense, rebounding and fast break . . . special situations drills for jump ball, stall, one shot, outbounds . . .That kind of work indicated desire.

This year produced the first winning basketball team at Lake Highlands. The team won 75% of their games and outscored their opponents an average of 10.9 points a game. The Cats were in contention for the district title after putting down McKinney early in the season. McKinney came back to win later in the season, putting LH in a tie for second place.

Doug Tanck goes up for the long shot.

. . . Second Straight Year.

Not only did the '66-'67 year produce an excellent varsity, the B-Team basketballers surpassed the "big men," by winning first place in their class. And for the second year, too. The boys thrilled the fans who came early before each varsity game, with the scoring skill and rebounding ability of Reggie Duck, Bill Brock, George Parker, and company. They softened the blow of the second McKinney game, when the varsity, lost by trouncing the Lion B's soundly.

Showing great promise for a '68 varsity conquest by their achievements tahis year, the sophomores and juniors will be great assets to next year's team.

Track '67

After receiving the final handoff, Don Mullman carries the baton to victory.

Coach Jackie Russell

To many sports fans who follow the succession of seasons by its corresponding succession of athletic events, spring means track.

Track has traditionally been a strong point in Lake Highlands sports.

The '67 Wildcats had six returning lettermen. These boys who placed in the previous district meet and formed the foundation of this year's team are David Odum, Edson Marlar, Tim Mashburn, Mike Lyle, David Hobbs, and George Latsko.

Coach Jackie Russell's team is prepared to meet the toughest of district 6-AAA competition including the old rival of McKinney, as a strong and experienced, well-rounded contender.

Coach Sam Austin

Tennis

Unknown to many of us, the tennis team works out year-round. Tennis is no part time game, and to excel, a player has to put forth his full effort. Practice is the word, and without it a tennis enthusiast can never hope to develop the control, split-second timing, and agility necessary for consistent victory.

'67 was a year for such consistency in the tennis team. These athletes played a number of the best teams in the Dallas area, including many of the 4A schools, and showed steady improvement as the season progressed.

Lake Highlands has been represented at state by Rebel Jenkins for the past three years and by Kathy Booziotis for two. This year, they again have good chances of carrying the Wildcat hopes to state, along with other team members, Karyn Hughes, John Preskitt, Will Kelly, and Ron Bosher.

Mrs. Frances Davenport is tennis coach.

Golf

Increased interest has been shown in Golf at Lake Highlands. Coach Tom Whitman's team showed greater ability this year than any previous Wildcat fairway team.

Golf is a game played at a leisurely pace, in a relaxed atmosphere, but as any other sport, it is demanding and difficult. It demands time and practice to develop the power stroke for long drives and the precision touch required for putting.

It can be both exhausting and exasperating, following balls that may stray off the fairway under a hot sun or be lost to the traps or water obstacles. But like other sports, the satisfaction comes in excelling under the pressures of competition.

Jack,

When will you stop hitting those parked cars. Next thing, stop your tick, tick, tick, tick, tick-tapper. You're a good Kid but you could fool anyone. Good luck as a senior '75.

Jack,
It's hard to believe that I am almost ready to leave biology. I never thought I would make it. If it hadn't been for our trusty, honest, nice, good-looking faithful, sweet, and ever-smiling lab assistant, life would have been so dull up there. Honestly, I really enjoyed getting to know you this year. I wish you the best o of luck next year. "Watch that chemistry!" Debbi
